Pastor Ron and Dee

Dear Family & Friends,

Life is fragile. Relationships are precious. Too soon, we lose those we love. This past Monday, we lost one of our best friends. Chris Johnson, "Pastor Chris," went home to be with Jesus. We rejoice in the knowledge that Chris is with the Savior he so adored. There's a saying, "Our loss is Heaven's gain." That still does not diminish our loss. Chris loved Jesus and exuded Christ's love to people of all ages, to people in all stations of life. Chris loved his beloved wife Alison, son Alika and daughter Chantel passionately. I'm grateful for the outpouring of support, as I know they are. We will celebrate Pastor Chris' life this coming Thursday evening here in the Worship Center at 6:00 P.M. We're anticipating that parking will be a challenge, and that we'll have many people from the community. We ask that those in our KCC family who are able to walk would utilize the parking available in our basketball court on Mahina and the municipal lots. Please continue to pray for Chris' family. Pastor Chris once told Alison that, should he precede her in death, he wanted his service to be joyful with plenty of food! So come, if you will, to celebrate Chris' life. Chris would want us to continue to rejoice in Jesus and we're going to do so! If you can't make it, Chris would say, "No bondage." From the throne in Heaven, amidst the ringing choruses of praise, I can hear Chris shouting, "It's all good!"

I'm excited this weekend to have Kainoa Valente, our Youth Minister, sharing the message in the series on Joshua. Kainoa has a journalism degree from UH, a Master's Degree in Practical Ministry from The King's College and a heart for God. He ministers with our Middle & High School youth and has a heart to see each become a full-fledged disciple of Jesus! Kainoa is actively looking for adults who are willing to love, listen to and pray for our young people, to assist him in this ministry. Please contact Kainoa if God is speaking to your heart about this. (255-7290)

We also welcome David & Marsha Van Wagenen this weekend and next. David & Marsha serve as church-planting missionaries in Ethiopia. We sent them out from KCC in 1984 to Africa where they've served with Christian Missionary Fellowship in Kenya, Eritrea and Ethiopia. They will be sharing with some of our Small Groups. Please check with David, Marsha or with Pastor Cal (282-1818) if you'd like to know their schedule.

Grace to You, Pastor Ron
