Pastor Ron and Dee

Dear Friends & Family,

Greetings & Aloha! God is so good, and it's a privilege to gather to worship Him. This weekend is special at KCC, because you're going to hear a message from Kainoa Valente, our Youth Minister. Kainoa is an incredible blessing to our ministry here at KCC. He leads our Middle and High School ministries, inter-facing as well with our upper elementary students at Kaimuki Christian School. I'm especially grateful for Kainoa's commitment to Jesus. His comment on his Facebook says a lot: "Don't go to church; be the church!" Amen. Kainoa has a vision to see our young people transformed into the body of Christ, working inter-generationally with our church to reach our community with Jesus' love. Kainoa and Serah bring intergenerational ministry into focus with the inclusion of their son Enzo into the life of their ministry. You're also going to appreciate the Youth Worship Team. They are a good representation of our youth.

Our Youth Ministry has a problem! They've run out of space in the Fellowship Hall. In September, our Youth will be moving their Sunday morning worship across Mahina Street to Queen Lili'uokalani Elementary School. Our Children's Ministry has a similar problem! They too have outgrown their space in the Keiki House and will be moving to the Fellowship Hall and the classrooms in our main building. I'd like to ask you to pray for these ministries as they move and, even more, offer your services to Kainoa or Marie to help with the transition. Our children and youth are such a precious and vital part of our church family.

Speaking of children, Dee and I have been having a wonderful time with our grandchildren. It was really difficult saying good-bye to Colt, Callie and family in Nebraska. But it's been a joy to connect with little Brooks here in Nashville. This weekend, we're planning to take a drive into Ohio and meet one of our candidates for the position of Associate Pastor/GenNext. Please keep our search for God's person in your prayers.

This month marks the 10th anniversary of the completion of our Worship Center and we're going to celebrate all month! Next weekend, I'm going to begin a series of 6 messages that will focus on values that make for a great church, and a great Christian. The first will be "Fanning the Flame" (Recapturing your First Love). Each will relate to the 10th Anniversary Celebration we're planning for Saturday, October 2nd. We'll see you next weekend!

Grace to You, Pastor Ron
